

Marketplace Direct Delivery (Consumer Exp.)

Manage Minimum Usage Requirements

Merchant's will need to set the minimum usage requirements for the end user (consumer)

- None - the associated items is Direct Delivery/Unboxed
- Unpacking - the item requires a sandbox or a place that allows the user to unpack it
- Land - the item requires land to unpack and use

The "Contains wearable item(s)" checkbox allows the merchant to state to the consumer that there are wearable items in the purchase item. This toggle is associated with the radio selection above it.

Cart Callout

The screenshot shows a shopping cart with the following details:

- Item: extravagant home, Sold by Daddy Hørsley Visit The Store
- Price: L$1,995 (quantity 1)
- Gift for Leonidas Linden (with options to edit message or remove from cart)
- Use It Now: NO sandbox or unpacking required.
- Total: L$3,485
- Buttons: Checkout, Continue shopping, Update quantities
- Payment: Check out with PayPal (The safer, easier way to pay)
- Disclaimer: *Rates USD Price is calculated at a rate of L$235 per USD. For more favorable USD rates, you may purchase L$ on the LindeX L$ Exchange.

1. The settings the Merchant made in the admin area are displayed to the user in the cart as well - in this example it's demonstrating the "Direct Delivery/None" setting

Order Confirmation Page

1. On the Order Confirmation page, a new link will be added to take “new “ users through the process of collecting their purchase in-world.

Sandbox & Land Delivery Help - Panel Slide

1. When the user selects the link to get delivery help, the left side of the page is populated with instructions based on the user's purchase. The help will be bucketed by Usage Types (Nothing and Sandbox & Land). So if the user only has purchased one item that is a Direct Delivery item that requires no land and no sanbox then only that item will be shown in the left. If, however, there is a mixed bag of items then the items will be noted and separated out so that the user will know what instructions relate to their purchased items.
2. The user will be able to interactively go through the instructions for delivery (Sandbox & Land is being demoed here). The frame will show what needs to be done in the application (viewer). The frame will be HTML panel based meaning that the image and contents will slide in and out of view based on the Next Step button.
3. Clicking the next step will take the user (slide the user) to show the next step of the process
4. The circles show the number of slides/steps, the user can click on any step to ove forward or back
5. The user can go to the existing wiki/help pages for more info

Sandbox & Land Delivery Help - Panel Slide

The screenshot shows the 'Thank you for shopping on the Marketplace' page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Language', 'Home | Help', 'Welcome, Rawk', 'My Marketplace', 'L$3575', 'Buy L$', and 'Sign out'. Below this is the marketplace logo and a search bar with 'Items' and 'Merchants/Stores' tabs. The search bar includes 'Search in' (set to 'All categories'), 'Show maturity levels' (set to 'General, Moderate, Ac'), and a 'Keywords' field with a 'Search' button. A shopping cart icon shows 'Cart (0)'. The main heading is 'Thank you for shopping on the Marketplace.' followed by a message: 'Your purchase is scheduled for delivery to you in your Second Life application. An email receipt has been sent to you as well.'

On the left, there are two blue callout boxes. The first is titled 'How to use your items that require a Sandbox...' and lists 'Purchased Item A', 'Purchased Item B', 'Purchased Item C', and 'Plus 2 others...'. The second is titled 'How to use items that require you to do nothing but have fun...' and lists 'Purchased Item X' and 'Purchased Item Y'.

The main content area is titled 'Next steps to start using your purchased items!' and contains the text: 'Some items purchased on the Marketplace come packaged in a box that will require you to unpack it in order to wear or use your item. These items (shown to the left) will be delivered to your Inventory in Second Life. You'll need to find a place to unpack, then transfer the items back into your Inventory so you can use them. Here's what you need to do:'

A tutorial overlay is shown in the center, titled '4 | Copy to your Inventory.' It contains the text: 'A pop-up should display, click the "Copy to Inventory" option. Once the items are copied to your inventory, they'll appear in the Recent tab and in your Inventory.' Below this text are 'Go Back' and 'Next Step' buttons. The overlay is positioned over a screenshot of an 'OBJECT CONTENTS' window. This window lists items from 'BodyMix Edwin freebie jeans and shirt' and includes a 'Copy To Inventory' button, which is circled in pink in the original image. Other items listed include 'Bodymix @ Lumiere Fetish', 'Bodymix Edwin freebie boot cut (no transfer)', 'Bodymix Edwin freebie long arms (no transfer)', 'Bodymix Edwin freebie long arms 1 (no transfer)', 'Bodymix Edwin freebie long pa', and 'BodyMix Main Store'.

At the bottom of the page, there is a link: 'Need more help? Watch this video tutorial to see the steps in motion. For more detailed instructions click here.'
